

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

THE INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR ENVIRONMENTAL PHILOSOPHY AFFILIATE SESSION AT THE NORTH TEXAS PHILOSOPHICAL ASSOCIATION

MARCH 28 – 29, 2025
THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT DALLAS

The International Association for Environmental Philosophy is pleased to announce that we have been invited to host an affiliate session at the 54th annual meeting of the North Texas Philosophical Association, which will be held March 28 & 29 at the University of Texas, Dallas in Richardson, Texas.

For this affiliated session, we invite proposals for individual papers. Two papers will be accepted after blind review for this session.

Proposals: Proposals should be between 200 – 300 words and can be in any area of environmental philosophy. Accepted papers should be prepared to be read within 20 minutes with 10 minutes for Q&A to follow. Please submit the proposal on a separate document prepared for blind review and, in the body of the email, list your name, your email, and affiliation.

Fees: Those accepted for presentation must be members of the IAEP by the time of the conference and must also pay the conference fee for the North Texas Philosophical Association. For information. See www.environmentalphilosophy.org and www.ntxpa.org. Note that NTPA conference fees vary for tenured faculty, non-tenured full-time faculty, and students and the under-waged. Early registration for the NTPA is until March 1, 2025, after which fees increase. For questions concerning current membership status in the IAEP, contact Jared Opoien at iaepsecretary@gmail.com.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: January 26, 2025 (notification of acceptance by February 15, 2025). Please submit your proposal to IAEP Co-Director, David Utsler, at dutsler@gmail.com.

About the North Texas Philosophical Association: Although a regional conference, the NTPA draws scholars from across the United States. Past keynotes have included Simon Critchley, John Sallis, John D. Caputo, Santiago Zabala, Babette Babich, and Alfonso Lingis, among others. The 2025 keynote will be Linda Martin Alcoff and the Robert Wood Memorial Address will be given by Walter Brogan.
